BEVERAGES

ORGANIC ROOT BEER – on Tap! By Shipyard Brewing Co. $3.95

Capt'n Eli's Root Beer is a full-bodied, hand-crafted, traditional root beer with the essence of wintergreen oil, anise, and vanilla. It's sweetened with natural cane and brown sugars, not corn syrup. That might seem like a minor difference, but not to Shipyard. "The use of sugar versus corn syrup in our recipe makes Eli's taste more subtle and less sweet than mass-produced commercial brands," noted Fred Forsley, president of The Shipyard Brewing Company. "Sugar is more expensive than corn syrup - about three times as much - but it's worth it."
